Caring for babies and children from 3 months to 5 years

Fee Schedule for Funded Sessions from January 2022

All children have access to the Government Free Childcare sessions from the term following their 3rd birthday.

The current entitlement is a minimum of 570 hours per year for all children and a maximum of 1140 hours per year for children of working parents (conditions apply). It is not a requirement to access all of your entitlement.

First priority is given to parents on a 51 week basis in terms of space, choice of a full day or a school day and are charged monthly. Parents are entitled to all the additional services and can make changes to their attendance with a one months' notice. The space is guaranteed for the duration of their time at Elan.

Second priority is given to parents on a term time basis in terms of space, choice of either a full day or a school day and are charged termly. Parents are entitled to all the additional services and can make changes to their attendance with a terms' notice. The space is guaranteed for the duration of their time at Elan.

Free Entitlement

The nursery offers 5 fully funded sessions per term for children accessing Universal Free Entitlement and they are offered on a Monday and Friday between 7:30am-6pm. The nursery place will be confirmed on a termly basis. Priority is given to children who receive the 2-year funding. No additional hours or services can be accessed.

*Please be aware that the government has set certain restrictions and the hours (regardless of 570 hours or 1140 hours) only covers childcare and no other additional services such as a cook, meals, resources and equipment, early years education, additional staffing, tools for planning e.g. footsteps, cleaning etc.
